When purpling grapes upon the trellis cluster, and bloomy plums drop ripely from their hold and peaches turn to globes of honeyed gold, and pears grow sleek with mellow gloss and luster

when a translucent base the sunshine follows and valls the fervent sky in dreamy light, Involves in mist the immineus mountain-h and alls with violet shade the mountain hollo When the still nights their dewy sweets surrende When stars recede, and on her throne screne The full moon sits a solitary queen, And floods the land and sea with silver splends

Then comes again, in shadowy completeness.
A face that faded once when littles came it.
A face the whitest likes could not shame
For lack of any lovely grace or sweetness.

Sine years are, in whent desolation, I watched the fading of that perfect face that I have His presence in the place— The awful Angel of Amuniciation.

The August sun had set in all its glory, And when the romp of clouds had trailed awa and gold and flames had melted into gray, read the ending of love's awestest story The balmy night came dewy-soft and stilly, with light winds frombling over beds of bloom Above the silence and the scented gloom I felt the waving of the mysticility.

And oul I saw, as one sees in a vision, Where, spell-bound, one may neither cry no stir; is dreary shadow stealing over her, and darkening lips and eyes with slow precision, Nine years ago. But still the memory thrills me; And the wild sorrow and the yearning pain Come back to wring my quickened soni again, And the same sense of desciation fills me, Whenever, through the summer darkness sighing.

Some wands ring wind has brought me wuddenly.
The scent of blies, as it came to me.
That high! in August when my love lay dying.

JUST WHAT SHE DESERVED.

BY EPSA MANSFIELD, "Do you intend, Alice, to take that sachel and lunch-basket and lird-cage and plant and water-proof cloak-so and plant and water-proof cloak—so many things—along with you into your car seat?"

"Yes, sir I must."

"Shall I place some of these bundles up in the rack for you, young lady? I can find no other seat in this car that is

"Way must you, Alice? It is not cold to-day, and there is no danger of its raining. You will not need your "You will please to leave my things where they are, she snappishly replied. It presume that there are plenty of value to the cars. Her face was so crimson and she looked so utterly crestfallen that your tender-hearted aunt said that she cloak, and you probably will not unstrap cant seats in the rear car. A gentleman your tender-hearted aunt said that she had so hastily formed of her.

ooking men and fussy old women."

John, upon who it is that wants a seat with me," replied Miss Alice, with a haughty spoke to me if she were not entitled to "And I hope, Uncle John," toss of her head. "I certainly shall not put my things ander my feet nor tickets for the two or will give me your Mike came up to the door with the ad my lap une mfortably to accom- word that you have paid for them both carriage "that I never again shall merit modate some or dinary looking man or I will go anywhere—will stand crowded the rebuke conveyed in your story." fussy old wom an. One-half of the men into any corner—sooner than disturb N. Y. Independent. nowadays would just as lief oblige a you again." young lad, to do it as not. They are not gall and at all; they ought to be ashan of of themselves. I have heard wor an good women they were, too—say that the seat beside them was en so and the seat beside the seat beside them was en so and the seat beside the seat beside them was en so and the seat beside the seat beside the seat beside them was en so and the seat beside the seat beside the seat besi gaged, when they had got their things the same right to it that she had to the ton, and writes in the Washington Capiplaced and didn't wish to remove them, one which she was occupying he would tal as follows: or because they didn't like the looks of the person who wanted the seat, when I know that they had no friend the seat, when I know that they had no friend the had no friend they had no friend the had no frie coming in to take the place. I didn't blame them at all, Uncle John. I shouldn't hesitate to say the same my-

at the man beside her, and I thought ed me," responded the senator, "of a hand? What course then should I pur-"Pshaw! pshaw! Alice. Is that you advocating such stuff as that?" exclaimaded her under the such stuff as that you advocating such stuff as that?" exclaimaded her under the such stuff as the was about to say something by the name of Pokebury. He was law the name of Pokebury. He was law was prevented by a gentleman's rushing that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something by the name of Pokebury. He was law was prevented by a gentleman's rushing that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something by the name of Pokebury. He was law was prevented by a gentleman's rushing that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something by the name of Pokebury. He was law was prevented by a gentleman's rushing that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something that the man beside her, and I thought that the man beside her, and I thought that the man beside her, and I thought that she was about to say something that the man beside her, and I thought that the ma elfish and unprincipled as to think of was closed and I had to wait nearly ten nose, and lacerated garments. Of course doing such a thing. If a man ought to feel ashamed to take a seat for which he has honestly paid, how ought a young lady to feel who would not scruple to lady to feel who would not scraple to pleasant ride and get to the seminary practice gross deception for the sake of without any trouble.

ever? If I were willing to do such a partly out of the window she whispoied, settled. Our first little difference was about as little as it would be if I wished to steal from a passenger as much money as he had noid for his special intent of humiliating the sp as he had paid for his car-fare. It will be fully half at hour, Alice, before Mike gets here with the carriage. White we her: 'I shall have a lovely time; you dog. But I didn't mind that, for Billy half at hour, I will tall the carriage. are waiting, I will tell you a little incident that father. An insodent that transpired in the car when I to his views. Then we differed on ablutted before breakfast to his views. Then we differed on ablutted before breakfast to his views.

front of us was occupied by a young after the cars started the 'insolent old didn't mind that, for people will differ, lady—just about your age, Alice, judg—ing from her looks. She was richly as complacently as he would have done dressed and I think would be called a life the cars started the 'inspient old and said, and so long as the difference don't affect to him what had taken place, and how are worse than useless everybody, perhaps, does not know. Iron and copper their crops and stables. Rarely is a complacently as he would have done dressed and I think would be called a life the cars started the 'inspient old and taken place, and how are worse than useless everybody, perhaps, does not know. Iron and copper their crops and stables. Rarely is a little too difference was just a little too difference was just a little too difference was just a little too.

intangible something about her which gave me the impression that she had no gave me the impression that she had no lea that the golden rule—' Whatsoever | unable to repress a smile. Perhaps we re would that others should do to you shall make each other's acquaintance er. That's the way we dissolve . you even so to them was intended some time. Then we will converse, or such as she. She probably thought, lice, that that divine injunction was we reached Richland. When the congiven for common people-'ordinary- ductor called out the name of the station she hastily arose, and, gathering up her packages, which were rather more our Aunt Ruth said that she believed that about all Summerville were than she could conveniently manage,

going somewhere that morning, the cars | said, imperatively: "'Let me pass out.' were so rapidly filled. It is always amusing to me to observe the difference in the dispositions and manners of the people who are seated while others are people who are seated while others are seem to be burdened with packages. sing through looking for unoccupied Allow me to take some of them out of eats. I know of no better place in the car for you.'

which to study human nature than in the cars. I think that I have seen threw back her head and locked intense-ments, the carlists, thanks to the assistnore curious phases of it while ridin ly disgusted that he should offer to ance they openly draw from the southin them than I ever saw in any other touch her things. He evidently tried ern provinces of France, become daily to suppress a smile as he turned around more formidable. It is wearisome to front of me that morning with more in- and crossed over to the young carpen- return incessantly to the same topic, ter. On account of your Aunt Ruth's but it is our duty to affirm the fact erest than I did any other person, becanse I wanted to ascertain whether I lameness we sat quietly in our seats, that the French government, in spite was correct r not in the opinion which waiting for the other passengers to go of its probable good intentions, neither out, before I helped her out. So I had prevents nor restricts the succors supnothing to do but observe what was go- plied to the carlists on our frontier, and came in wasa white haired, tottering old ling on around me. 'The young lady's to which we have so often called atten-"One of the last passengers who man. He looked to the right and left packages troubled her, and she was obtion. A carlist newspaper published at him for a vacant seat, as he passed liged to pause a moment to rearrange Bayonne in both Spanish and French own the siste, lesning on his staff. I them. Before she passed out of her not only propagates the most untrustlanced ahead; but I could see no place seat a young lady about her own age worthy news so long as it is favorable where he could get a seat except with rushed in to meet her. After the accus- information on all that concerns the inman would give up his seat to the poor seat and exclaimed:

VOLUME XVI.

"Two men-one middle-aged, the

PULASKI, TENNESSEE, THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1874.

impatient at the delay, started off;

both in English and Welsh.

ened to open, and having done so with see how far she would let her selfish-ness carry her.

I wanted to see how far she would let her selfish-ness carry her.

I beg of you to tell me that it was not he. " I cannot, my dear; for it certainly other younger—sat in the seat directly was he, replied Miss Grace, Why, The London Spectator, in an article entitled "The Deteriorated Breed of Ghosts," discusses at considerable opposite the young lady. From a few words that I caught of their conversation I learned that the younger man was a capenter, and I thought it quite probable that they both were. The middle-aged man sat next the aisle, and I noticed that he was observing the younger that younger that younger that younger they was a spreadle men in the world, and his wife is just as agreeable as he is. I thought that you were one of the most both. If you will please show me your | Alice in a softened and subdued tone as up to the window where she sat and exgirls, and occasionally a man, who acted upon that principle; but I had serious doubts of their goodness. I never dreamed before, Alice, that you were so selfish and unprincipled as to think of practice gross deception for the sake of retaining, for her own convenience, a seat to which she has no claim what ever? If I were willing to do such a correct out of the window she whispered.

"She neither showed tickets nor | Senator Jones Points A Moral.

Our first little difference was settled. Our first little difference was settled. Our first little difference was settled. of an astronomical character. We di- amazement I gazed upon him; where the lightning were knocked out of tion. Billy abluted before breakfast, mond last fall. We had a seat at the rear end of the car. The first seat in front of us was compiled by a young to the moving off of the train. Soon dressed and I think would be called a had not heard her epithets:
handsome girl; but there was something both in her look and manner that the sand see if I knew him when the was not pleasing to me, even before I had heard her speak, or hardly seen her move. If any one had asked me what please give me his name?

Think would be called a if he had not heard her epithets:

He made no reply, and on look fear. He made no reply, and on look for much for me. We were sitting down to five escaped from Casenga last moved, and the fact that the five escaped from Casenga last moved and takes the wood only proves about a greedy dog, when about my being a greedy dog, when about the ricity than wood, and the fact that the five escaped from Casenga last moved out of any the current sometimes leaves the something has been put in the way to obstruct its course. A metallic rod, of the macinato in Sardinia, have been thank you for those molasses." This third difference was just a little too fear. He made no reply, and on look-five escaped from Casenga last moved all cause of the fear. He made no reply, and on look-five escaped from Casenga last moved on the fear. He made no reply, and on look-five escaped from Casenga last moved on the fear. He made no reply, and on look-five escaped from Casenga last moved on the fear. He made no reply, and the fact that the five escaped from Casenga last moved on the fear. He made no reply, and on look-five escaped from Casenga last moved on the fear. He made no reply, and the fact that the five escaped from Casenga last moved on the fear. He made no reply, and the fact that the five escape move. If any one had asked me what please give me his name?'
I disliked in her, it would have been was to much—no man can say "those was too much—no man can difficult for me to tell; yet there was an replied. 'I am not in the habit of hold-molasses," to me and live—and I just took him in the countenance with a emerge from his concealment and cut right-hander that settled him and his across a field to our left, resheathing allow the charge to be given off freely in the midst of a hostile or timid popudamped insulting bad grammar togethin town, and I guess Bill will be here in a couple of weeks."

"And so," continued the senator, "Morton struck on doctrinaire."

"And so," continued the senator, "Morton struck on doctrinaire."

"And so," continued the senator, "Morton struck on doctrinaire."

"And so," continued the senator, "Morton struck on doctrinaire."

"And so," continued the senator, "Morton struck on doctrinaire."

"And so," continued the senator, "Wordon struck on doctrinaire."

"And so," continued the senator, "Wordon struck on doctrinaire."

"And so," continued the senator, "Wordon struck on doctrinaire."

"And so," continued the senator, "Wordon struck on doctrinaire." "He did not speak to her again until in a couple of weeks."
"E reached Richland. When the con"And so," continued the senator,

The Relations Between France and the Carlists. A letter from Madrid, published in the Journal des Debats, contains some passages of strong interest at the pres ent moment. Speaking of the probably early resumption of hostilities in northern Spain, the writer says: The struggle will be severe, for if the "She did not reply in words; but she liberal army is receiving re-enforcebe young lady of whom I have been tomed salutations between young ladies, surrectional movement—the guns that delling you. I hoped that some young the newcomer dropped down upon the are expected, the ammunition which has successfully passed the frontier, another car; for I was sure the young ally would not make room for him, if he norses and mules procured or expected—everything, in short, that befits its profession of Carlist Moniteur. At he had come seat and excisimed:

""Oh! Clara! my breath is nearly the horses and mules procured or ex-one had moved for him. I wanted to Mr. Gaylord. You surely must be try- THE DOMINIE'S SPIRITUAL VIS- the consciousness of power makes man Halluchatton of a Maryland Weman into soldiers. In some unguarded moment they will strike Germany. The length the latest phases of spiritual An Alligator's Nest. manifestations as compared with the "grand style" of the old-time ghosts of the ante-spiritualistic epoch. As a property in various parts of the country the phenomenon of electricity. clutched the reins, which I had let fall certainly the freaks of the subtle fluid are quite a number who believe it is the on his neck, for the purpose of checking were never so inexplicable. If the replutched the reins, which I had let fall could be have come from? He appear- feather beds, where, in accordance with What an Italian Brigand's Head is the earth. He must have been riding for safety. In the light of these facts behind and have overtaken me. And we have been criticised because we yet I had not heard the slightest sound; beld to the belief that no building had ly brigandage is as flourishing as in it was mysterious, inexplicable. But ever been destroyed when properly prothe olden times; the police are either it was mysterious, inexplicable. But ever been destroyed when properly pro-That scores able position soon overcame my feelings of buildings provided with rods have tent against their organized forces, and of wonder, and I began at once to adbeen struck by lightning everybody the poor find it their interest to protect But I dress my companion. I asked him if knows, but that thousands of buildings the brigands who never molest them he had seen any one, and then described | are at present provided with rods that | and frighten away the proprietors and his sickle as he hurried along. He had and instantaneously. Probably if all lation without aid or information from I'm evidently seen that I was no longer the lightning-rods in the country were the civil functionaries, A large reward without the slightest success. Not a short time for the iron to rust and word did he deign to give me in reply. I continued talking, however, as we links, and as soon as that is done the for Lorenzo Lampiasi, surnamed the I continued talking, however, as we rode on our way towards the gate, though I confess feeling both surprised and hurt at my companion's mysterious silence. Once, however, and only once did I hear his voice.

Having watched the figure of the reaper disappear over the brow of a neighboring hill, I turned to my companion and said. "Can it for a moment panion and said, "Can it for a moment be doubted that my prayer was heard, and that you were sent for my deliverance by the Lord?" Then it was that I thought I heard the horseman speak. | building which, but for the rod, would and that he uttered the single word have gone in another direction, and that "amen." Not another word did he building which is provided with rods give utterance to, though I tried to suffers more if struck, than one unprolicit from him replies to my questions, | vided with rods," We were A New Guinea Bird.

There is a hird in New Guinea called the Megapodins, which, in the size of its eggs and its manner of hatching "No use," said the proprietor. "Look known, as many reported missing have now approaching the gate, which I hast-A New Guinea Bird. my stick I waited at the side of the road for him to pass through, but he came not. I turned my head to look—the mysterious horseman was gone! I its eggs and its manner of hatching nary. It is not larger than one of our which was printed, "No loans (on any the disaster.

The latest intelligence says the pernary. It is not larger than one of our ordinary fowls, but its eggs are three inches long by two and a half in diameter, It does not attempt to sit on them. A colony of birds lay their eggs together in a large mound in the hottest part of the year, from September to March, and leave them to be hatched by the sun. The mound is made of sand. was dumbfounded; I looked back in the direction from which we had just been riding, but, though I could command a view of the road for a consideranother car; for I was sure the young lady would not make room for him, if she could avoid it. She had about as many packages as you intend to take many packages as you intend to late to meet you, Alice, and she arranged them all along on the seat beside her with such nicety that it gave them a long on the seat beside her with such nicety that it gave them a long on the seat beside her with such nicety that it gave them a long on the seat beside her with such nicety that it gave them a long on the seat beside her with such nicety that it gave them a long on the seat beside her with such nicety that it gave them a long on the seat beside her with such nicety that it gave them a long on the seat beside her with such nicety that it gave them a long of the year, from September to late profession of Carlist Monnteur. At the head come.

The Washington Unronice asys: "A long of the year, from September to leave, with the part of the year, from September to leave, and they can no longer definite the mand anything for themselves.

Some one in months. My customers just life every diffile every diffile every diffile every diffile every diffile every step of the ward and about as profession of Carlist Monnteur. At the head come.

Some one in and leave them to be hatched by diffile every diffile with such nicety that it gave them a peculiarly touch-me-not appearance. I thought of asking her if she had hought of asking her if she had looking for a seat, thinking she might look and the might look and th more forbearing to an opponent, calmer in disposition, with a larger mixture of that perfect self-possession, which is ene of the best tests of true manhood.

The latest instance of superstition war will be one of unsparing severity, and if they fail, Paris will be razed to the ground and the name of France be have seen the Celestial City. Among her many wonderful prophesics she stated that her last "visit to the heav-was a separety, and I thought it spells agreeable men in the world, and his problems on some partial than the was observing the agreeable men in the world, and his problems of the men where were the separety of the separet the same time the peculiar 100a which the man cast at its heavy silver case. Nothing else, however occurred to ex-

The great destruction to life and ently crazy, and attempted to commit suicide. She was seized, however, and give an additional interest to the study she informed those near her that she had triumphed over the devil, and had surroundings. Never, says the New York World, "has | conquered him, and in a minute or two there appeared to be a greater disturb- returned to consciousness. In five years ance of the electrical equilibrium, and time she is to take the pulpit. There ports we have received are correct, personal appearance she does not appear many of the buildings which have been diseased. She is a brunette, neither handsome nor homely, and would weigh between 130 and 140 pounds, and ap-bales of cotton which formed a part of ten. Ocean avenue, which is about six Worth. boat burned to the water's edge, boat of and cargo, the latter consisting of cattle, In the northern provinces and in Sicisheep and nogs, a total loss. partisans of malefactorrs or are impothe poor find it their interest to protect

Hard Times in New York.

Financially things are dreadful. saw the other day a party who related to me a morning's experience, going to em, must be considered extraordi- at that," pointing to a playeard on

"As he stooped and took her pack, that he intended he were, from his looks, that he intended he were from his looks, that he intended he were from his looks, the man cast at its neavy sliver case, and the man cast at its neavy sliver case. The work of tool in me, but it they shall be conviced. It was not mistaken. He came directly to her, and, gently touch on the window, he said:

"Shall I place some of the window), he said:

"Shall I place some of the react for you, young lady? I "she stood like one transferred and into other east in this car that is no other east in this car that is not occurred by care person."

"You will please to leave my things will be seen to be a fair and no other east in this car that is not occurred by care and sample layer point of the east was a card and all intrastely terminated at a gate this car that is not occurred by care and the east of the east o eloak, and you prote billy will not underst.

ii. Gan't you put it it into your seat with you put it it into your seat with you.

If you must take so many some that there are pleity of variety of the indigent Jews.

In you put the time of the situation of the s directions, but not a single human being was to be seen, so reining in my horse, I asked myself in much alarm which I could do. Should I turn back?
No; my business was of the utmost importance to the cause for which I was journeying, and as there existed the faintest possibility of getting there is could not think of returning. Should I trust to the speed? No; for the gate through which I had to pass was not open.

I trust to the speed? No; for the gate through which I had to pass was not open. Could I leave the road and make my place in the country can show as good self under the same circumstances. It wouldn't be telling an untruth. If all of these packages were on it, it wouldn't it?"

18th of that month she would have a simproved in the process. Then, again, moment, for what chance could I—weak hard contest with the devil, and presented that word 'doctrinaire;' it had such a dreadful sound to h.m." "He remindered that word 'doctrinaire;' it had such a dreadful sound to h.m." "He remindered in the process. Then, again, we compare actual reports of conversation with the written records of thought, man with a dangerous weapon in his dreadful sound to h.m." "He remindered that word 'doctrinaire;' it had such a dreadful sound to h.m." "He remindered that word 'doctrinaire;' it had such a dreadful sound to h.m." "He remindered that word 'doctrinaire;' it had such a dreadful sound to h.m." "He remindered that hour on the day named she passed that hour on the day named she passed to hunt alligator's eggs." into an unconscious state, and in a min- what a man writes is generally much ute or two was in a terrible rage, appar- better than what he says. Even the where he can polish his own good things from the effects of lightning during the past two or three weeks, has served to strength of four men. After a while than in the random flashes of fun which owe half their merit to their temporary

A RIVER HORROR Water's Edge-Over Twenty Lives

About twenty lives were lost, Several riages is a sight not soon to be forgot-ager register and all books were lost. The boat was valued at $60,000, and majestically at your feet. Block Island, insured in Cincinnati, for $32,000 and Point Judith, Brenton Reef, where so Louisville for $5,000. The value of the many vessels have been wrecked and cargo is not ascertained. THE ENGINEER'S STORY. Mr. Holmes, the engineer gives the following account of the burning: "It was just about 6 o'clock when just opwas just about 6 o'clock when just op-posite Longhery Creek, that flows into that marriages solemnized at the resihat I noticed a bright light in some bales of cotton in the after part of the boat. I hastened to the spot and found the cotton burning rapidly and beyond any possibility of immediately extin-guishing it. I hastened to the hurricane deck and gave the alarm to the pilot that the boat was burning and told nim to run ashore. The pilot at once arned the boat's head to the shore and immediately she became unmanageable.

The pilot states that he could turn the wheel but the steamer would not answer to her helm. He thinks THE TILLES SOPE HAD BEEN CUT.

From this fact it is thought the fire was the work of an incendiary. Another theory is, that one of the deck passengers, while smoking, dropped sparks from his pipe into cotton. boat became unmanageable she drifted on to a sand bar, and there grounded. The flames, instead of spreading along the lower deck at once, shot up to the eabin and pilot house, an then swept across the hurricane deck. The passengers were all aroused and the boats owered, and many were carried to the matters really exists. This person had shore, but others, in their fright, jumpneed of a certain sum, and drove about ed into the water, and those who were then, in a moment, it retakes them into As though it hadn't enough on its among debtors for several days without not drowned reached a safe landing place the depth of its own bosom, where they hands already, the German government encountering a loose cent. At last, in after drifting a long time with the curbeen seen by some on the shore after

NUMBER 33.

THE RAILEGADS.

aratoga's Syndicate-The New Freight Taxiff.

The resolutions and minutes of the truth." recent meeting of railroad men, at Saratoga, have been taken to Indianapolis fore there was such competition to pro-cure freights, there was no pretense of year, at the market price of eggs." last three-quarters of an hour, but if a Sunday dog-fight don't continue at least an hour and a half everybody feels dis-ort, to be a good ing carriages and so rapidly are they

The pas- entire drive is through the most varied where many brave sailors have met a watery grave, may be distinctly seen."

cantion to Ladies Going Abroad.

A recent decision made by the French letion of international law, the resi-whom the ambassador is accredited. A marriage contract at a minister's resi-will naturally cause some uneasiness to our American friends that have married French wives or husbands at our minister's residence in Paris, and who wish

God's Bealings.

Lord deals with his friends who are dearest to him, as the ocean does with How few are those, how very rare, who are driven and dashed where the Lord legal in both countries.

for many reasons to have the contract dence between a French subject and a ton Journal writes : "No watering-

A Newport correspondent of the Bos- you hear your father speaking to you?" "Oh, y-a-a-s," replied the youth, I don't mind what he says. M roads as can be found here. New avenues are brought into public notice every year, and the fashionable driving we've about got the dog so he don't." THE PRITADELPHIA LEDUER doesn't every year, and the fashionable driving is no longer confined to Bellevue avenue. Upon either side of the drives are the elegant homes of the rich, literally hemmed in by trees, shrubberies, and flowers, presenting a sublime and enchanting appearance. The majority of the guests, one would be lead to suppose, ride to be seen, so coatly are they arrayed in fashion's lattest attire, while with footmen and coachings in nary point of view. Between five and the untiring muskeeter. half-past seven o'clock in the afternoon | THE English exports to this count that the steamer Pat Rogers burned on the 5th inst., one mile below Aurora. Is the object of countries of the display of every description of carand nearly all descriptions of textiles, except silk, show a marked decrease, the cargo, caught fire, it is supposed miles in length, is one of the most ro- and the total reduction for the six from sparks from the chimneys, and the mantic drives in the country, and is a months is 27 per cent. continuation of Bellevue avenue. You In the time of the second Emperor of scenery, the broad blue Atlantic rolling ber of Chinese books. The digest was completed fourteen hundred and has never been printed, because would make twenty-two thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven volumes, a work much larger than the Chicago has been selling a keg, supposed to con-tain ten gallons of liquor. By an ine Ohio river, two miles below Aurora, dence of a foreign minister, resident in of rum was sealed up inside these kegs genious arrangement in the kegs a pint France, are not marriages at all. By a and so placed that, taking out a small cork, the purchaser could test the liqdence of an ambassador or minister is uor, but while there was a pint of liq considered for certain purposes part of the territory of the country he repre-pints of water separated from it.

selves this year for examination at Harvard. Apparently there is a difference between studying at a scientific school of the incompetency of the foreign offiof the incompetency of the foreign offi-cial who solemnized it. This decision auspices of a celebrated university. But the former seems most popular. An Engassu writer in a recent article gives a cooling description of Iceland. After stating that there are no trees, no vegetables to speak of, no town except the capital, no inns, no hens, no pigs, no roads, no shops, no manufactures I have sometimes thought that the Lord deals with his friends who are dearest to him, as the ocean does with there?" and himself replies, "Snowits waves. Sometimes it pushes them | mountains, glaciers, hot springs, earthagainst the rocks, where they break in quakes, volcanoes, northern lights, cavpiaces; sometimes it rolls them on the erns, morasses, and, above all, deserts, are absorbed with the same rapidity has undertaken to regulate dueling in the more violently they are dashed formed, and without the sanction of upon the rocks, the more quickly and such a board and the presence of its impetuously do they return to the great center. With others he deals more gently, There are many, far the greater number, whom he permits to live by consolations mingled with faith. on the field of henor, except in peculiar flagrant cases of unprovoked insult. he old emperor is quoted in the Lonpleases, till their wills are wholly de- don Times as saying: stroyed, and they can no longer de- tolerate in the army an officer who wanformant heard him repeat to twenty applicants, who, armed with watches and diamond jewelry, appeared in quick cents, and after we licked 'em they stole cent boking for a seat, thinking she might personnel boking she might personnel boking she might have been she for the seat of the brain. Dancing she who have seen him! seen the principal. Sail the services every nerve and muscle state of the brain. Dancing she should be proposed till their chicks are should be proposed to Dorregary's last proclams action at least possible to make a might have been should till their chicks are should till their c

LOOK!

x The pencil marks you see around this paragraph (thus) mean that your subscription is out or unpaid, and that you are requested to pay up at once, We would take great pleasure in extending credit to our friends and patrons, but each alone will pay expenses, and we are forced to adhere to a strict cash rule. We hope you will comprehend and appreciate the necessity of such a course, and renew your subscription without delay. We solicit your favor, We enter no new mames on our

SATINGS AND DOINGS.

THE Springfield Union calls "Mary had a little lamb, a generally admitted pooks without the money in advar ce.

NEARLY 18,000,000 stogic segars have been sent out on the world from Wheeling during the past six months. Ir is observed that at the fashionable sea-side resorts no ladies under one hundred and forty pounds avoirdupois are in bathing this season. Band mountain has got through shaking, and singularly enough the new converts around there have commenced playing eards and setting up again. Ir may be the right of an American citizen to ride around in a wagon and howl like a wild beast, but quiet people wish that elections were further apart. "Ir costs less to take a weekly pa-Chunch services in Green Bay only

A MASSACHUSETTS man has been in a successful business forty nine years, and never advertised. The business onsisted chiefly in lying about his "Our in Wisconsin a horse kicked a book agent, wherenpon the citizens made a donation party for the horse, and he now has oats enough to last him a full horse lifetime. Wirn stupidity and sound digestion men may front much. But what in these dull, imaginative days are the trarors of conscience to the disease of

"Boy," said a traveler to a disobedient youth whom he encountered, while with footmen and coachmen in nose, taking a bite through a hole in livery, prancing steeds arrayed in gold our clothes; in through the window, and silver trappings, they are gazed upon by the less fortunate in a pecuand singing the sweeter, ever is found is the time to behold the grand pageant show a great falling off in all the leaddrive in and out among rocks, and the the Ming dynasty, some learned China-

An ingeniousfellow in Lewiston, Me., sents, but this applies only to diplomatic acts. It does not extend to civil acts affecting the citizens of the country to affecting the citizens of the country to likese. Only seven women offered them. Mone than fifty women applied for